

The Arkansas Bujinkan Dojo
Is proud to announce a seminar featuring

Shihan Karl Koch

Shihan Karl Koch is a 15th Dan in Budo Taijutsu. Although his three decades of experience in martial arts have emphasized eastern styles, his diverse background also includes western styles such as wrestling, archery, fencing, boxing, medieval infantry combat, and Native American weaponry and traditions. In 1981, he began studying the teachings of Dr. Masaaki Hatsumi and began training almost exclusively in the Bujinkan in 1983. In 1996, he passed his 5th Dan test and was accepted as a personal student of Dr. Hatsumi and continues to travel regularly to Japan to train with him.

This two-day seminar will focus on Soke Hatsumi's theme for 2012.

When:

- ♣ Saturday, February 25, 0900-1600
- ♣ Sunday, February 26, 1000-1300

Where: Arkansas, Bujinkan Dojo, 2 Roya Lane, Bryant, AR 72022

Cost: $90 if paid by Feb 1, $110 if paid by Feb 18 and $130 at the door.

For more info on Karl Koch, visit <http://www.budosites.com/hmbd/>

For more seminar information, contact Jeff Walker at 501-291-3211 or jtwalker@ualr.edu
Directions to the dojo and other information may be found at arkansasbujinkan.com.

